SHORT-TERM ARTISTS RESIDENCIES

Illinois Arts Council
An Agency of the State of Illinois
111 N. Wabash Avenue
Chicago, IL 60602
312/793-6750

What Is S.T.A.R?

S.T.A.R. is a grants program of the Illinois Arts Council (IAC). Short Term Artists Residencies make it possible for communities, colleges, universities, libraries, arts organizations, clubs, and other NON-PROFIT Illinois organizations to bring in Illinois individual professional quality artists to conduct workshops, lectures, demonstrations, performances. Artists who work in folk or ethnic traditions are also eligible for this program. Residencies may last one to five days.

How Can You Use S.T.A.R.?

S.T.A.R. can be a fine addition to previously planned events, such as arts festivals and arts exploration programs. It might be the first project of a new arts group. A church has used the program to bring in a mural artist to direct a mural involving church members, parents and students. A junior college held a Careers Day for the Fine Arts and used the S.T.A.R. program to bring in a speaker. An ethnic group wishing to teach children about their cultural heritage used the program for workshops and demonstrations led by an artist in that community.

What Are The Steps to Apply?

Use this checklist to begin your residency, but don't hesitate to call the IAC if you have questions.

1. DECIDE upon the discipline of interest (suggested list of disciplines is included in this brochure.)
2. REQUEST biographical information from the artist you've selected. (Request information from the IAC, if you do not already have an artist in mind.)
3. CONTACT the artist directly to discuss availability, program content, and other arrangements. Artists must be Illinois residents for at least six months prior to application date.
4. If the artist is available and agrees to an engagement, COMPLETE and MAIL the Sponsoring Group's Application in this brochure, at least six weeks prior to planned residency, along with the artist's resume and a letter of agreement between your organization and the artist. If the application is approved, contracts for the sponsoring group will be prepared and funds reserved for the program only upon receipt of this application form and its attachments.
5. INCLUDE the following credit line on all publicity and programs. "(Artist's name)'s participation in this program is partially funded by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council, a State agency."
6. COMPLETE and RETURN final narrative and financial report upon completion of the program. Include copies of all publicity—news clippings, releases, slides or photos of the event.

How Do You Select An Artist for A Program?

Explore your local community for possibilities. Contact your local arts council. If you're interested in a particular art form but don't have an artist in mind, let us help you with some suggestions or referrals. We also encourage artists to seek sponsors and initiate a program.

How Much Does It Cost?

The artist's fee is a minimum of $200 per day. The local sponsor must provide 50% of the artist's fee; the remaining 50% plus travel expenses are covered by the IAC. The IAC makes a grant of its matching amount to the sponsoring group. The sponsoring group is responsible for paying the artist. In case of artists whose native language is not English, additional funds may be available for a translator.

In the event that the sponsor cannot match 50% of the artist's fee, the IAC may be able to negotiate the matching amount.

The IAC will pay the travel expenses of the artist. The community may provide accommodations and meals in addition to the artist's fee. If distant travel or other circumstances warrant, the IAC may restrict its support to the 50% match and the artist's travel. Check with each artist if you'd like to include these additional expenses.

What Are Some Of The Disciplines from Which You Might Select An Artist?

Architecture	Printmaking	Crafts
Dance/Movement	Photography	Fibers/Textiles
Film/Video	Sculpture	Theater/Mime
Music	Painting/Drawing	Creative Writing
Playwriting	Costume/Set Design	Traditional American/Ethnic Folk Arts

What Criteria Will Be Considered in Reviewing Applications?

- Quality of the artist selected
- Quality and clarity of activity planned
- Plan for community awareness of event
- Estimated participants in the event
- Priority will be given to first-time sponsors over sponsors that have applied several times during any one fiscal year.

What Is The Deadline for The S.T.A.R. Program?

The deadline is open and applications are accepted on a first come, first serve basis. However, the IAC should be contacted as there is a cutoff date near the end of the IAC fiscal year (June 30).

What Else Should You Know?

It is extremely important that the coordinator for the sponsoring group talk with the artist before contracts are signed to ensure that the expectations of both the sponsoring group and the artist are clearly understood. The sponsoring group should furnish the artist with as much information as possible on all aspects of the artist's visit prior to the artist's arrival. The letter of agreement should include all details and expectations; a sample letter agreement is included on the back of this application. (Road maps and directions to the site are a good idea!)

Freedom of expression is paramount not only to a free society, but to the creation of art. The IAC bases its funding decisions on the artistic quality of submitted projects. Panelists, Council members, and staff of the IAC will not discriminate on the basis of age, handicap, color, creed, national origin, religion, race, sex or sexual preference.
